4. Matters to consider

4.1 Background

The rules governing political balance on Committees/Sub-Committees are set out under Section 15 of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 (duty to allocate seats to political groups) and Section 16 (duty to give effect to allocations). Section 17 of the above Act states that section 15 and 16 shall not apply where no member votes against a seat distribution not following the requirements of Sections 15 and 16 of the above Act.

In simple terms this removes the political balance requirement, the effect of which has enabled seat allocation on an agreed rather than imposed basis.

This arrangement is of particular benefit in relation to membership of scrutiny working groups. Members are reminded that appointments to Cabinet Executive are exempted from the provisions of the above Act by virtue of the Local Government Act 2000. Quasi-Judicial and similar committees should be regarded in similar light.

The Council must, when making appointments to Committees/Sub-Committees, give effect to the wishes of the political groups to whom seats are allocated. The Council is asked to endorse, unanimously, the distribution of seats as set out in the report.

Formal notification has been received that Cllr. Rebecca Lunn has become an Independent Member. As a result, the seat allocations and committee appointments were required to be re-calculated.

Seat Allocation – Based on current membership arrangements, the representation of seats is set out below:

Conservative	Liberal Democrat	Labour	Green	Independent
32	15	9	3	1

Amendment to Committee Appointments

It is recommended that Cllr. Rebecca Lunn be appointed to the Licensing and Regulatory Committee, with the allocated seat distribution as shown below:

Conservative	Liberal Democrat	Labour	Green	Independent
